What is the RWIEF?

The Right of Way International Education Foundation (RWIEF) is a non-profit tax exempt corporation that works to elevate the standards of the right of way profession through innovative educational programs. All contributions made to the RWIEF are tax deductible.

What is its purpose?

The Foundation was established for the primary purpose of funding right of way education initiatives. Since continuing education and professional development are essential to the growth and advancement of our profession, the Foundation focuses on generating financial contributions and determining how to best allocate those funds on behalf of the right of way profession.

What types of programs does the RWIEF fund?

With over $1.2 million in assets, the RWIEF takes a strategic approach in determining which right of way educational programs to support. Over the last few years, funding has been allocated to projects that fall within these categories:

- New course development
- Revamping of existing courses
- Web-based training programs
- Educational summits
- Career development and outreach

A message from the President...

The world around us is changing rapidly. Now, more than ever, the RWIEF must be in a position to address these changes. Toward this effort, the RWIEF, in conjunction with IRWA members and leadership, will continue to focus its efforts on expanding and enhancing out educational materials and professional development programs."
